7 vs.

ORDER

8 FORD MOTOR COMPANY; THE GOODYEAR

9 TIRE AND RUBBER COMPANY, et al.,

10 Defendants.
11

12 On December 5, 2013, plaintiffs filed a Stipulation for Extension of Time (#25). Defendants
13 objected, asserting that counsel for defendants did not authorize the application of their electronic 14 signatures to Docket #25 and arguing that the extension requested by plaintiffs should not be granted.

15 Treating the Stipulation #25 as a motion for extension of time, that motion is GRANTED in part
16 and DENIED in part, as follows:

- 17 1. Plaintiffs are granted through March 17, 2014, to obtain counsel. Counsel must file a 18 notice of appearance by March 17, 2014;
- 19 2. Discovery is not reopened;
- 20 3. Defendant Ford Motor Company has until April 16, 2014, to supplement its Motion for 21 Summary Judgment (#29) in light of plaintiffs' depositions taken last week;
- 22 4. April 16, 2014, is the date by which all parties must file dispositive motions;
- 23 5. The opposition to Ford's Motion for Summary Judgment (#29) will be due on April 30, 24 2014; the time for any reply will be governed by Local Rule 7-2(c); and
